Hello!

Are you passionate about working with young people? If so this could be the role for you.

At Inspire, we're looking for a Youth Employment Coach to join our Youth Employment Service (YES) Team. YES is a 1:1 service for any young person (16 to 24 years) not engaged in education, employment or training (NEET). The service provides information, advice, signposting and practical support for any young person seeking information on employment, education and progression routes to help them into paid work, work placements, employment, voluntary work, education, apprenticeships and /or training.

Our Mission

Inspire is a charity dedicated to helping young people discover their purpose and fulfil their potential. In 2024, over 7,000 young people turned to us for support, guidance, and opportunities.

Our mission is rooted in the belief that every young person deserves the chance to lead a confident and fulfilling life. That's why we focus on all aspects of wellbeing—mental, physical, emotional, and social—to equip young people with the tools and guidance they need to succeed.

To make that all possible, we have an eclectic mix of brilliant people working to do great things for others. We're committed to creating a supportive working environment where both our team and the young people we serve can thrive. We hope this pack gives you a better understanding of who we are!
